Governmental funds report capital outlays and right to use capital outlays as expenditures. However, in the statement of activities, the cost of those assets is allocated over their estimated useful lives and reported as depreciation and amortization expense.
Capital outlays to purchase or build capital assets are reported in the governmental funds as expenditures. However, for governmental activities, these costs are shown in the statement of net position and are allocated over their estimated useful lives as annual depreciation. This is the depreciation for the year.	(18,264)
For the year ended June 30, 2025, the cost of right-to-use lease asset are recorded in the government-wide financial statements and expensed as incurred as payments are made in the fund financial statements.
