To Management
Western Irrigation District
Brule, NE

Management is responsible for the accompanying summary statement of actual cash receipts, disbursements, and balances of Western Irrigation District as of January 31, 2025, included in the accompanying prescribed form and for determining that the cash basis of accounting is an acceptable financial reporting framework. We have performed a compilation engagement in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the AICPA. We did not audit or review the summary statement of the actual cash receipts, disbursements, and balances included in the accompanying prescribed form nor were we required to perform any procedures to verify the accuracy or completeness of the information provided by management. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion, a conclusion, nor provide any form of assurance on the summary statement of actual cash receipts, disbursements, and balances.

The financial statement is prepared in accordance with the cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Management has elected to omit substantially all the disclosures ordinarily included in the summary statement of actual cash receipts, disbursements, and balances prepared in accordance with the cash basis of accounting. If the omitted disclosures were included in the summary statement of actual cash receipts, disbursements, and balances, they might influence the user's conclusions about the District's actual cash receipts, disbursements, and balances. Accordingly, the financial statements are not designed for those who are not informed about such matters.

The summary statement of actual cash receipts, disbursements, and balances included in the accompanying prescribed form are intended to comply with the requirements of the Auditor of Public Accounts for the State of Nebraska and are not intended to be a presentation in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of Western Irrigation District and the Auditor of Public Accounts for the State of Nebraska and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

We are not independent with respect to Western Irrigation District.
